SUBRECIPIENT MONITORING

If Federal or State funds are subgranted by the agency, the agency has the responsibility, as required by Federal and State regulations, to develop procedures to monitor that funds are appropriately spent by its subrecipient. The requirement to monitor applies only in instances where the subrecipient is granted the funds as financial assistance, and does not apply to purchase of service contracts and agreements. For example, an agreement where a subrecipient will determine eligibility for Crisis Intervention Program (CIP) payments must be monitored. An agreement where a contractor provides maintenance to computer systems does not require monitoring, even if Federal or State funds will be used to support the contract.

Control Activities / Information and Communication:

Yes N/A No

- ✓ _____ 1. Is a master list maintained of all Contractors?
- ✓ _____ 2. Is the master list of subrecipients/contracts updated as contracts are signed or terminated?

Yes N/A No

- ✓ 6. Are audit findings identified in audit reports for subrecipients assigned to appropriate personnel to resolve the findings?
- ✓ 7. Is the audit resolution process periodically reviewed to determine that audit findings have been resolved?
- ✓ 8. Is the monitoring guide up-to-date and does it cover all aspects of the program which would not be included in the compliance audit of the program?
- ✓ 9. Are monitors adequately trained to evaluate the programs administered by subrecipients/Contractors?
- ✓ 10. Do monitors use a monitoring guide?
- ✓ 11. Do monitors consider factors such as size of grants, prior monitor findings, compliance audit findings, the size of the organization receiving the grant, and the experience of the organization in administering the program in selecting subrecipients for monitoring visits?
- ✓ 12. Are monitor workpapers, findings, and resolutions reviewed by appropriately designated officials?

Special Tests and Provisions

The specific requirements for Special Tests and Provisions are unique to each Federal and State program and are found in the laws, regulations, and the provisions of contract or grant agreements pertaining to the program. For programs listed in the annual State Compliance Supplement, the compliance supplements specify the criteria for Special Tests and Provisions. Requirements that are in all programs are found in the annual crosscutting requirements document. There may be additional compliance requirements that are not based in law or regulation, e.g., actions that were agreed to as part of the audit resolution of prior audit findings or in corrective action plans to remedy of issues identified as a result of monitoring reviews.

Control Activities / Information and Communication:Yes N/A No

- ✓ 1. Are compliance supplements reviewed annually by appropriate staff?
- ✓ 2. Are the crosscutting requirements reviewed annually by appropriate staff?

I talked with Lee. I am going to process your Full Self Assessment just as you submitted it. By doing this, you will be eligible to complete the Self Assessment Certification for the next 4 years providing you continue to meet the requirements for completing the certification.

I have one question: On the last page under Additional Information/Examinations of Agency question #3, you have a check mark under both the N/A and No columns. Which answer did you mean?

Thanks!

Judy
